

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICEL 2020
Apr 16-17, 2020
Cape Town, South Africa

The International Research Conference is a federated organization dedicated to bringing together a significant number of diverse scholarly events for presentation within the conference program. Events will run over a span of time during the conference depending on the number and length of the presentations.

ICEL 2020 : International Conference on European Law is the premier interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of European Law. The conference will bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and scholars in the domain of interest from around the world. Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

European law

Big data, Law, and the public's health

Public health law: Looking back and ahead

Public health paternalism, autonomy, and equity

Data security: Bridging law and technology

Tobacco regulatory science:

Bridging the gap between science and law

Public health legal approaches to climate change

Tribal environmental public health:

Prevention via law, policy and practice

Practical guide to changing public health policies and laws

Community experiments in public health law

Vaccine policy surveillance:

Emerging trends

Alternate care sites: Legal issues, challenges and best practices

Firearms, mental health and the law

The changing legal facets of newborn screening

Data, health information and local public health