

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICUAWPOW 2020
Sep 23-24, 2020
Vancouver, Canada

The International Research Conference is a federated organization dedicated to bringing together a significant number of diverse scholarly events for presentation within the conference program. Events will run over a span of time during the conference depending on the number and length of the presentations.

ICUAWPOW 2020 : International Conference on Urban Animal Welfare Policies and One Welfare is the premier interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of Urban Animal Welfare Policies and One Welfare. The conference will bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and scholars in the domain of interest from around the world. Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

Comparison of local animal control and welfare ordinances and their effectiveness

Structural arrangements for local animal welfare and control: public versus nonprofit approaches, service networks, funding arrangements

Applications of One Health/One Welfare

Effectiveness of extant local policies: trap-neuter-return, breed specific legislation, legal protections for roaming animals, animal cruelty regulations

Programs to enhance animal welfare: education versus regulation

Cultural differences in urban pet keeping and animal welfare

The merits of differing approaches to shared animal welfare concerns
Identification of the most pressing urban animal welfare issues; current and future

Methods to reduce animal cruelty
Development and use of databases to assess and study urban animal welfare issues
