

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICISTA 2020
Nov 05-06, 2020
Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The International Research Conference is a federated organization dedicated to bringing together a significant number of diverse scholarly events for presentation within the conference program. Events will run over a span of time during the conference depending on the number and length of the presentations.

ICISTA 2020 : International Conference on International Security and Theoretical Approaches is the premier interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of International Security and Theoretical Approaches. The conference will bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and scholars in the domain of interest from around the world. Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

International security
Concepts of security in the international arena
The multi-sum security principle
Trends and challenges in international security
Globalization
Security in international relations
The state as a security arrangement
National security: current issues and contemporary applications
International society as a security arrangement
International security: current issues and contemporary applications
Security paradigms in conflict: the problem of intervention
Traditional security
Theoretical approaches

Realism
Classical realism
Neorealism
Liberalism
Economic liberalism
Liberal institutionalism
Comparison between realism and liberalism
Constructivism
Women in international security
Human security
Corruption
Terrorism
Proliferation