

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICGDE 2021
Jan 18-19, 2021
Rome, Italy

The International Research Conference is a federated organization dedicated to bringing together a significant number of diverse scholarly events for presentation within the conference program. Events will run over a span of time during the conference depending on the number and length of the presentations.

ICGDE 2021 : International Conference on Global Development Economics is the premier interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of Global Development Economics. The conference will bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and scholars in the domain of interest from around the world. Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

Development economics	Economic nationalism
Global development economics	Post theories
Economic aspects of the development process	Linear-stages-of-growth model
Methods of promoting economic development	Structural-change theory
Economic growth	International dependence theory
Structural change	Neoclassical theory
International development	Economic development and ethnicity
Policies and practices	The role of ethnicity in economic development
Mathematical methods	Economic development and its impact on ethnic conflict
Inter-temporal optimization for project analysis	Recovery from conflict (civil war)
Quantitative and qualitative methods	Growth indicator controversy
Theories of development economics	Recent developments
Mercantilism	Prominent development economists