

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICCCL 2021
Feb 08-09, 2021
Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The International Research Conference is a federated organization dedicated to bringing together a significant number of diverse scholarly events for presentation within the conference program. Events will run over a span of time during the conference depending on the number and length of the presentations.

ICCCL 2021 : International Conference on Common and Civil Law is the premier interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of Common and Civil Law. The conference will bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and scholars in the domain of interest from around the world. Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

Primary connotations
Common law as opposed to statutory law and regulatory law
Common law legal systems as opposed to civil law legal systems
Law as opposed to equity
Basic principles of common law
Common law adjudication
The common law evolves to meet changing social needs and improved understanding
Interaction of constitutional, statutory and common law
Overruling precedent—the limits of stare decisis
Common law as a foundation for commercial economies
Mediaeval English common law
Influences of foreign legal systems
Roman law

Propagation of the common law to the colonies and Commonwealth by reception statutes
Decline of Latin maxims, and adding flexibility to stare decisis
1870 through 20th century, and the procedural merger of law and equity
Common law pleading and its abolition in the early 20th century
Contrasts between common law and civil law systems
Constant jurisprudence
General principles of law
Adversarial system and inquisitorial system
Contrasting role of treatises and academic writings in common law and civil law systems
Common law legal systems in the present day
Roman Dutch Common law
Alternatives to common law systems
Scholarly works