

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICRDC 2021
Jul 19-20, 2021
Copenhagen, Denmark

The International Research Conference is a federated organization dedicated to bringing together a significant number of diverse scholarly events for presentation within the conference program. Events will run over a span of time during the conference depending on the number and length of the presentations.

ICRDC 2021 : International Conference on Religion and Democratic Citizenship is the premier interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of Religion and Democratic Citizenship. The conference will bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and scholars in the domain of interest from around the world. Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

Religion and Democratic Citizenship

Citizenship, social pluralism and religious diversity

Conflicts about rules of international economy

Cultural revivalism and threats to religious freedom

Democracy and citizenship religions

Democratic politics

Democratic society

Economic globalisation

Exploring religion's relationship with politics

Globalisation and migration

International conflicts

Interrogating the category of religion

Liberal democratic societies

Migration processes

Migration leads to religious and ethnic pluralization

Military threats

Non-western religious traditions and politics

Open societies

Participation in social and political processes

Political conflicts

Populism and citizenship

Populist movements

Postsecularism in politics

Religion and identity politics

Religion and international political economy

Religion and nationalism