

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICPRA 2021
Sep 20-21, 2021
Toronto, Canada

The International Research Conference is a federated organization dedicated to bringing together a significant number of diverse scholarly events for presentation within the conference program. Events will run over a span of time during the conference depending on the number and length of the presentations.

ICPRA 2021 : International Conference on Political Representation and Authoritarianism is the premier interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of Political Representation and Authoritarianism. The conference will bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and scholars in the domain of interest from around the world. Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

| | |
|--|---|
| Political representation | Four views of representation |
| Political representation and empowerment | Political realities and changing concepts of political representation |
| Political representation and alternative electoral systems | General discussions of representation |
| Women and political participation | Arguments against representation |
| Political participation in modern democracies | Non-electoral forms of representation |
| Political participation and quality of life | Representation and electoral design |
| Political representation and democratic legitimacy | Representation and accountability |
| Components of political representation | Descriptive representation |
| Delegate vs trustee | |