

CALL FOR PAPERS

ICSES 2021
Sep 20-21, 2021
Toronto, Canada

The International Research Conference is a federated organization dedicated to bringing together a significant number of diverse scholarly events for presentation within the conference program. Events will run over a span of time during the conference depending on the number and length of the presentations.

ICSES 2021 : International Conference on Sociology of Education and Socialization is the premier interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of Sociology of Education and Socialization. The conference will bring together leading academic scientists, researchers and scholars in the domain of interest from around the world. Topics of interest for submission include, but are not limited to:

Sociology of education

Educational sociology and sociology of education

Relationship between education and sociology

Early history of the sociology of education

Contemporary theoretical approaches

Emerging perspectives for the 21st century

Theoretical issues in studying social inequalities and education

Methodological issues in relation to educational inequalities

Inequality in education relating to gender and ethnicity

Studies on social class and inequalities in education

Higher education and inequalities

Educational policy in relation to educational inequalities

Financial crisis affecting educational inequalities

Globalization and social inequalities in education

Race, ethnicity, and minority group status

Teacher accountability and burnout

Inequalities in education